A long time ago, in the land of Tagalog, there lived a young and beautiful prince named Tzu. He was known for his intelligence and eloquence, and differed from his peers in that he was very lonely. Tzu was forced to leave his home and go far away so as not to be a burden to his parents. Since then, he wandered through different countries, looking for his love. One day he met a beautiful girl named Shin. She was very beautiful and also clever.
